What book are you most looking forward to reading this summer?

White, by Bret Easton Ellis

Why?

"I look forward to reading this book this summer because I grew up reading books by Bret Easton Ellis, and they always take me to another place."

Where can we find you dining this summer?

Pierre's in Bridgehampton

HANG TIME

BY CECELIA BLOOM

At long last it's time to pile into your Mini Moke and head to the beach for some much-needed time to unwind. Memorial Day kicks off a time for exploration out East: new restaurants, new shops, a new summer routine and, if you're lucky, maybe even new self-discovery.

We asked today's leading beauty & health experts (and Hamptons residents) what books they'll be enjoying and where we'll find them dining this summer. Take a look to see what they said.
